

A Weekend of Conversation: Heralding and Nourishing New Directions in Educational Thinking and Action

Presented by the Association for the Cooperative Advancement of Science and Education

SATURDAY 21 OCTOBER, 2017

10:00 am - 4:00 pm (lunch provided at 12:30 from a local Saratoga establishment)

Presentations by Leading Educators introduced by Paul Zachos — ACASE

William E.J. Doane — IDA's Science and Technology Policy Institute

My 30 year journey through evaluation: apprentice, practitioner, researcher, advisor

Deborah Newlen — Bay Area Education Center

A new basis for organizing a school

Jason Brechko — Glens Falls High School

A simple change that can transform a classroom

Winifred M deLoayza — East West Leadership Coaching

Monica Schurr — Regeneron Pharmaceuticals

Enhancing Training Programs through Educational Assessment and Evaluation

And others, including ACASE interns presenting their aspirations and work

5:00 pm

Invitational Dinner

Honoring those who have supported our work over the years

Catered by chef Kim Klopstock

50 South, 2128 Doubleday Avenue, Ballston Spa, NY 12020

SUNDAY 22 OCTOBER, 2017

10:00 am - 3:00 pm (lunch provided at 12:30 from a local Saratoga establishment)

Envisioning how to Support each others' Innovative Educational Initiatives

Structured and open Conversations facilitated by Barbara Glaser and Winnie deLoayza

5:00 pm

Knowing the Learner

Book signing by the authors

Northshire Bookstore, 424 Broadway, Saratoga Springs, NY 12866

<https://www.northshire.com/event/paul-zachos-and-william-doane>